

SCOPE OF SERVICES PROVIDED BY PENNSYLVANIA SPECIALTY PATHOLOGY

- A full range of anatomic pathology services is provided by our experienced and well published, board certified anatomic and clinical pathologists.
  - Specialized reporting of dermatopathology by board certified dermatopathologist.
  - Specialized reporting of gastrointestinal pathology cases by fellowship trained GI pathologist.
  - Turnaround time will be 1 day on all routine biopsy cases.
  - In house immunohistochemistry facilitates rapid turn-around.
  - Frozen section service provided for surgery centers/physician offices
- Specimen containers, bio-hazard bags and requisition forms will be provided by PSP.
- A dedicated courier will pick up the specimens at a prearranged time Monday to Friday, or on demand.
- Rapid reporting of Pap smears with Type 16/18 molecular subtyping of HPV.
  - CT/GC molecular testing performed on the same Pap vial – no need for a separate specimen.
  - Patients will be informed via letter of their normal Pap results by PSP.
- Comprehensive pathology reports with color images incorporated.
- Malignant diagnoses color coded to alert physician.
- Color copies of final reports will be delivered by courier
- Online result retrieval.
- We will interface with your electronic medical record or practice management module.
- Reports can be faxed if required.
- Doctors will be informed of all first time melanoma and other unexpected or first time malignant diagnoses by phone.
-
- Technical only services including
  - Tissue processing
  - H&E slides, special stains, immunohistochemistry.
- Advantage of using a small lab is personalized, courteous service.
- We make it easy for your office staff by accepting all insurances for anatomic pathology services and we will only bill your patients for their applicable co-pay and deductible.
- Self pay patients are charged 1.5 times Medicare rates.

Our goal is to provide a specialized, high quality, personalized service!!!
We are taking local pathology one step further.